

A RESOLUTION

Honoring the life and memory of Dr. Thomas Edwin Seay, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, the State of Georgia mourns the loss of one of its most distinguished citizens with the passing of Dr. Thomas Edwin Seay on December 26, 2015; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Seay was born on December 9, 1951, in Athens, Georgia; and

WHEREAS, he received an undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia, a Ph.D. in Biomedical Sciences from East Tennessee State University, and an M.D. from James H. Quillen College of Medicine; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Seay was a founding member and chair of the board of directors of the Georgia Center for Oncology Research and Education (CORE) and was a leader in the development of CORE's Clinical Research Network; and he devoted his life to caring for cancer patients and advancing oncology research; and

WHEREAS, Georgia CORE gives oncologists an outlet for optimism, a way to build infrastructure and collaboration to advance discovery, and an opportunity to educate more people and expand access to cutting-edge treatments; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Seay was united in love and marriage to Mrs. Cindy Seay, and was blessed with one remarkable daughter, Alex; and

WHEREAS, he gave inspiration to many through his high ideals, morals, and deep concern for his fellow citizens, and the devotion, patience, and understanding he demonstrated to his family and friends were admired by others; and

WHEREAS, he was a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness, and by the example he made of his life, he made this world a better place in which to live; and

WHEREAS, a compassionate and generous man, Dr. Seay will long be remembered for his love of family and friendship, and this loyal husband, father, and friend will be missed by all who had the great fortune of knowing him.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body join in honoring the life and memory of Dr. Thomas Edwin Seay and express their deepest and most sincere regret at his passing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed to make an appropriate copy of this resolution available for distribution to the family of Dr. Thomas Edwin Seay.
